On the Funny Side

I started out with nothing, and I still have most of it.

Please read the "POOL RULES".

NO GLASS, NO PETS, WHAT YOU BRING, PLEASE TAKE BACK HOME WITH YOU (that includes trash).

Did You Know

The Ballot is being distributed and mailed for updating our Rules & Regulations. Since they are part of our Bylaws, they will be voted on by all Shareholders of Pine Hill Residents, Inc. It must be returned by the date shown in the cover letter. Results will be announced at our Annual Shareholders meeting September 5. Check your park directory for all meeting dates and to be sure your address is up to date.

We will also be voting for members of the Board. There will be three openings in September. Your participation is needed.

Check the bulletin board for the "CO-OP MEMBER'S TEN COMMANDMENTS"

Please do not remove it so that others can read it. If you would like an email copy, let Mary know. It is also posted on the Website.

CHALLENGE OF THE MONTH

When you read the Ten Commandments, see if you can find the typo. Let Mary know.

Let's see how many can find it. Or for the corrected copy, look on the first page of the park website.

Honking Your Horn

Honking in the park may be considered a thoughtful gesture to the person who is doing the honking but to all the neighbors around there, it is startling and annoying when it happens several times every day. A wave is quite effective and very friendly.

Resident Update Welcome New Residents

Gerald C (Jerry) and Nancy Gruber, 59 So Front St.

Vicki Knisley, 42 Old Well Rd.

Farewell

Sadly, we say farewell to Barry and Joanne Doggett, at 59 So. Front St, previous owners of the Park "Thank You" for all you have done for the park.

Lois Harris, 42 Old Well Rd.

Tripoley got pretty rowdy when Peter, Roberto and Gene kept upping the bet until the cup was full of gold...oh no, it was only PENNIES!!! Peter could hardly carry his winnings home.

We had a wonderful 4th of July Celebration with a tribute to Resident Veterans & great food!

Showtime at Pine Hill Park

Things were different in PHP years ago when residents had many different parties and outings. Here is an example of a 40's Speakeasy: Melody Dyer is at the far left, Charles Edwards in white suit and Harry and Mary Kay on the right.

Al Capone gets his gal.

Charles Edwards

The entire cast-show after a potluck dinner at Pine Hill Park.
